

ZAGREB CITY BREAK

Weekend in Zagreb, 3 days/2 nights, Zagreb/Croatia,

Experience city's charming central part, including historic Upper town, as well as the main sights in lower town, Zagreb's center, rightfully nicknamed "little Vienna", filled with historic architecture and enjoy local food and wine. (Zagreb, the city of museums and culture, growing and developing quickly into one of the cities of the so-called New Europe is at the same time incredibly laid-back: one of the pleasures that locals as well as tourists enjoy here is relaxing in one of the many cafes that the city has to offer as life which goes on in the busy streets becomes just a scenery.)

Day 1: Arrival to Zagreb, transfer to hotel, check-in, free time for afternoon/evening walk

Day 2: Sightseeing tour 3-4 hours. The tour starts at your preferred meeting point, and then we will take you through the historic parts of Zagreb's upper town, with its narrow streets filled with stories from the past. The Stone Gate, Grič Cannon and St. Mark's Church are just some of the Upper town's most cherished sights. Also, you will experience the elegant architecture of Zagreb's lower town and its Austro-hungarian buildings and parks, as well as charming pedestrian streets and squares where locals love to relax. Besides being the Croatian
