

ZAGREB CITY BREAK & PLITVICE LAKES

Weekend in Zagreb and visit to Plitvice Lakes National Park, 3 days/2 nights

Zagreb, the city of museums and culture, growing and developing quickly into one of the cities of the so-called New Europe is at the same time incredibly laid-back. The beauty of Plitvice National Park near Zagreb is world known. Due to the natural beauty of the waterfalls, cascades, caves and rocks, which offer a beautiful mosaic of colours, sounds and shapes surrounded by high mountain forest terrain, Plitvice lakes and its surroundings were in 1949 declared a National Park, and since 1979 have been under the UNESCO protection.

Day 1: Arrival to Zagreb, transfer to hotel, check-in, free time for afternoon/evening walk

Day 2: Full day excursion to Plitvice Lakes. Start at 08:00. The park is regularly included in the lists of most beautiful natural wonders of the world. We will take you through the wonders of the lakes with its waterfalls and untouched nature, along the walking paths and including boat rides on the lakes. Additionally we will visit the small village of Rastoke with its water mills where you can enjoy the harmony between nature and historic and cultural heritage of the region, where you will enjoy gastronomical delights of the region, all ecologically produced. On the way back to Zagreb we will visit War memorial museum in Turanj, near Karlovac. Return to Zagreb at 19:00, free time for an evening walk in centre.

Day 3: Morning sightseeing tour 2-3 hours. The tour starts at your preferred meeting point, and then we will take you through the historic parts of Zagreb's upper town, with its narrow streets filled with stories from the past. The Stone Gate, Grič Cannon and St. Mark's Church
